

Graphic Designer Job Posting

We're looking for a full-time youthful and creative graphic designer who's familiar with the vibe and characteristics of the city of Halifax, to join LUMI Studios' growing team.

Required Skills:

- Work closely within a creative team to ensure a collaborative/consistent approach
- Communicating effectively with internal and potential clients and team members
- Capable of successfully producing attractive and effective materials for digital and traditional media purposes
- Create high-quality corporate and product/services marketing materials from concept to final production
- Capable of catering to varying cliental: commercial based, food focused, targeted-audience advertisement and promotion material
- Produce finished creative and artwork for production and/or placement by ensuring that all creative material is provided in the correct format for publication including file preparation and output, prepress and proofing
- Ensure values and visual identity are reflected for each client (brand consistency)

Required Experience:

- Strong working knowledge of graphics and design fundamentals
- Highest level of attention to detail with creative and artistic ability
- Ability to manage a diverse workload
- Strong skills and technical knowledge of related programs and computer software including: Adobe Creative Suites, interactive media, web design, branding, presentation skills
- Diploma or Undergraduate degree in Graphic Design
- Knowledge of Microsoft Office, After-Effects, Premiere, and Sketchup is an advantage

Seniority Level: Entry Level

Closing Date: Tuesday, September 22nd 2020

*Applicants are kindly asked to email a copy of their resume and portfolio to: info@lumistudios.ca